2017-2018 Media Kit

SURPRISE RECREATION CAMPUS

WHAT WE DO

The tradition continues to grow within the City of Surprise as the Surprise Recreation Campus embarks on a new year filled with a series of events that make the City of Surprise a premier tourist destination.

With over 200 acres of recreational opportunities, the Surprise Recreational Campus extends over a 10,500 seat stadium, 12 major league practice fields, youth baseball complex, 8-acre Multi-purpose Soccer Field, 25 court state of the art tennis complex, and an aquatic center which includes a competitive pool and diving well.

As a multi-purpose venue, the Surprise Recreation Campus aims to not only provide a foundation for our community programming, but to also provide our community members and businesses with exclusive options to expand and build supreme branding opportunities.

This media kit will feature a guideline in assisting you in finding a perfect fit for your company and/or organization to help maximize every aspect of a partnership opportunity with the Surprise Recreation Campus.

SURPRISE STADIUM

Voted Best Stadium to watch a Spring Training Game, the Surprise Stadium proudly serves as the Cactus League Spring Training Facility for the Texas Rangers and the Kansas City Royals Major League Baseball Organizations.

Developed in 2002, the Surprise Stadium is constructed over 200 acres and is comprised of an 10,500 seat stadium, six club level suites with outside stadium seating, state of the art scoreboard, 12 major league size practice fields (6 lighted), 16 hitting tunnels, 36 shooting gallery pitching mounds, and a 8-acre multipurpose turf recreation field.

Averaging over 190,000 visitors throughout the course of Spring Training, the Surprise Stadium strives to continue to providing the ultimate Spring Training experience for baseball fans.
